
Graduate Program Requirements

Required Major Courses: (18 Credits)

- CRS 7000 Conflict Resolution Theory and Practice
- CRS 7100 International and Inter-cultural Conflict Resolution
- CRS 7150 Socio-Cultural Approaches to Identity Conflicts
- CRS 7200 Nonviolence: Theory and Practice
- CRS 7800 Research Methods in Conflict Resolution
- CRS 7850 Applied Mediation and Negotiation

Required Advanced Courses: (3 Credits) Select one of the following

- CRS 7900 Conflict Resolution Internship
- CRS 7950 Conflict Resolution Applied Research Project

Related Elective Courses: (9 credits) Select three courses from the following

- CRS 7250 Inter-cultural Communication and Conflict Management
- CRS 7300 Peace Studies and Social Movements
- CRS 7400 Law and Conflict Resolution
- CRS 7450 Family Mediation Theory and Practice
- CRS 7500 Restorative Justice and Victim Offender Mediation
- CRS 7550 The Ethics of Conflict in Global Perspective
- CRS 7600 Special Topics in Conflict Resolution