
Graduate Program Requirements

Required Major Courses: (6 Credits)

- CRJ 7100 Advanced Criminological Theories
- CRJ 7110 Research Methods in Criminal Justice and Criminology

Required Advanced Courses: (18 Credits)

- CRJ 7200 Advanced Behavioral Crime Analysis Theory
- CRJ 7210 Violent Crime Analysis
- CRJ 7220 Ethical and Legal Aspects of Criminology
- CRJ 7230 Criminal Investigative Analysis
- CRJ 7240 Equivocal Death Analysis
- CRJ 7250 Geographic Crime Analysis

Related Experiential Courses: (6credits)

- CRJ 7900 Internship in Criminal Justice and Criminology
- CRJ 7910 Study Abroad in Criminal Justice
- CRJ 7990 Criminal Justice Thesis
- CRJ 79XX Prior Learning
- EXSC 5XXX/7XXX Tactical Strength Training and Exercise Science

Program Notes:

Students are required to complete 6 (six) credits in the area of related experiential courses. Students may choose from separate categories for various credits to achieve the required six credits.