
Graduate Program Requirements

Required Major Courses: (6 Credits)

- CRJ 7100 Advanced Criminological Theories
- CRJ 7110 Research Methods in Criminal Justice and Criminology

Required Concentration Courses: (24 Credits) Select 8 from the following

- CRJ 7370 Applied Research in Criminology
- CRJ 7400 Advanced Legal Issues in Criminal Justice
- CRJ 7410 Leadership and Administration in Criminal Justice
- CRJ 7420 Contemporary Correctional Issues
- CRJ 7430 Dynamics of Criminal Justice and Human Security
- CRJ 7440 Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design
- CRJ 7500 Corporate and Occupational Fraud
- CRJ 7510 Advanced Forensic Investigation
- CRJ 7520 Advanced Forensic Accounting and Litigation
- CRJ 7530 Forensic Economics
- CRJ 7540 Digital Forensics
- CRJ 7550 Advanced Topics in Cyber Forensics Investigations
- CRJ 7560 White Collar Crime Seminar
- CRJ 7570 Fraud and the Law

Related Experiential Courses: (6 credits)

- CRJ 7900 Internship in Criminal Justice and Criminology
- CRJ 7910 Study Abroad in Criminal Justice
- CRJ 7990 Criminal Justice Thesis
- CRJ 79XX Prior Learning

Program Notes:

Students are required to complete 6 (six) credits in the area of related experiential courses. Students may choose from separate categories for various credits to achieve the required six credits.