

---

Graduate Program Requirements

Required Major Courses: (6 Credits)

- CRJ 7100 Advanced Criminological Theories
- CRJ 7110 Research Methods in Criminal Justice and Criminology
  - ~Or~ CRJ 7305 Anatomy of Motive

Required Advanced Courses: (24 Credits)

- CRJ 7300 Seminar in Forensic Linguistics
- CRJ 7310 Forensic Language Structure I
- CRJ 7320 Authorial Attribution and Speaker Identification
- CRJ 7330 Forensic Language Structure II
- CRJ 7340 Author Profiling and Threat Assessment
- CRJ 7350 Forensic Sociolinguistics
- CRJ 7360 Legal and Ethical Issues in Forensic Linguistics
- CRJ 7370 Applied Research in Criminology

Related Experiential Courses: (6credits)

- CRJ 7900 Internship in Criminal Justice and Criminology
- CRJ 7910 Study Abroad in Criminal Justice
- CRJ 7990 Criminal Justice Thesis
- CRJ 79XX Prior Learning

Program Notes:

Students are required to complete 6 (six) credits in the area of related experiential courses. Students may choose from separate categories for various credits to achieve the required six credits.

Created: 7/1/2024